

SA Summer of Speed 2007/2008

Heat #4 - Final

2008 Feb 16 – GPS Challenge. Milang, SA

Race day four of the KA Sail SA Summer of Speed (the final round) was held on Saturday at Milang, SA. There was a good turnout of sailors for this final round, but we all sat around in the 36 degree heat for most of the day waiting for the sea breeze. In the end we decided to call it quits and decide the results with the previous three successful rounds of sailing that we'd had during the season. Of course the wind kicked 10 mins later, but the decision had been made and we quickly had the presentation and major prize draw so that we could all go for a sail. The final results are in the table below and big congratulations go to men's division winner Tim Hemer and women's division victor Kym Symonds. Each division was closely fought throughout the season, and the two final victors are both very deserving. Competition was fierce throughout the field and many were jostling for that extra position or two where possible.

Big thanks go to KA Sail for their generous support of this race series and also to Steve Roberts for the ever-reliable rescue boat and Chris Reiffel for the great bbq skills and equipment. Thanks also to everyone who entered and participated, it was great to have 18 entrants all with GPS units that are keen to race and enjoy some strong competition.
